

I support the idea of complete elimination of the Morse Code as a licensing requirement for any class of license in the the Amataur Radio Service. The original reasons for requiring Morse proficiency have disappeared (interference from spark transmissions to government stations), and any secondary reasons (military prepsredness) have likewise been made obsolete by changes in technology. There is no remaining reason why Morse proficiency should be reauired.